

House Resolution No. 1316

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Scott Schoenleber of Columbia, Missouri, who will participate in "Posters on the Hill" to be held April 20, 2004, at the Missouri State Capitol; and

Whereas, Scott Schoenleber is one of sixty-three undergraduates who will display their research experience during a poster session in the U.S. Capitol, Washington, D.C.; and

Whereas, Scott Schoenleber is an exemplary student at the University of Missouri-Columbia, where he stays busy working towards his dual degrees in biological sciences and Spanish, doing research in immunology, volunteering at the Centro Latino clinic in Columbia, and spending time outdoors; and

Whereas, the co-author of "Blocking the Onset of Type 1 Diabetes in Young and Predisposed Mice", Scott Schoenleber is the proud recipient of several awards and honors including the Sam B. Cook and Kirk T. Smith scholarships; and

Whereas, elected to Phi Beta Kappa honorary as a junior, Scott Schoenleber has worked to form a student Chapter of Centro Latino at the University of Missouri, which would allow Centro Latino to recruit on campus, establish and enrich a relationship between the participants of the "After School Program" and higher education, and to create a mentorship program between Latino high school students and college students to show them the great opportunities that are available at the college level; and

Whereas, following his graduation from the University of Missouri, Scott Schoenleber looks forward to turning his undergraduate research in diabetes prevention into a career in public health, educating people on how to avoid illness:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Scott Schoenleber at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best of success in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Scott Schoenleber, as a mark of our esteem for him.
